July 20, 2021 - FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

25 Year Customer Renews with Sharetec Another 10 Years

LINO LAKES, MN – Sharetec System, one of the fastest growing core systems, bold technology, caring partner, is pleased to announce Natco Credit Union in Richmond, IN, has extended their contract another 10 years.

Cindy Duke, CEO of Natco Credit Union, comments, “Our partnership with Sharetec dates back more than 25 years. In an environment where technology plays a key role in where and how consumers bank, we are always looking for ways to bring new technology to members and prospective members. With Sharetec’s new approach and vision, we feel we have found an excellent way to do this by utilizing the vendor partnerships they have established. We are excited to sign a 10 year contract with Sharetec, working with Carrie Heck and the Sharetec team has given us the assurance that our partnership is strong. As we continue to grow, Sharetec will grow with us to ensure we are offering cutting-edge technology.”

“Natco Credit Union’s contract renewal is a huge win for us as many of our staff contributed and always enjoy working with the Natco team. When a client renews for such a long term, it is always a big deal for us. The dedication and hard work the Sharetec team provides our client’s is one of the many reasons we are able to help credit unions achieve their goals and serve their members,” comments Carrie Heck, Account Relationship Manager for Sharetec.

About Natco Credit Union
